Dear Mr. Dench, 3/14/96

Because my wife and I are both past 80 and have infirmities we can provide Oswald in New Orleans only in a xerox copy that has a durable binding. It is $25 in US dollars plus the cost of shipping. To Australia that would be by surface mail, which takes some time. The package will go for two pounds. The last time we shipped to Australia that cost about $3.00. We ask that payment be in US dollars because we live in the country and if not in US dollars we not only face costs from the rate change but the costs added by the two banks required here for handling it.

I do not know where you can get any of Penn Jones' books.

You do not mention my NEVER AGAIN! The Last Hurrah can provide it, too.

I do not know what they have to add to the cover price, which is $15.95.

The shipping might come to three pounds. It will be at least two pounds.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
